Dear Friends in Christ,

May God continue to bless and protect everybody in your home and church. Amen.

At the end of another year we can celebrate God's faithfulness, yes He Is!! Even if all around there is tragedy and a strong spirit of discouragement is trying to fall on His own people too. Please do not let it happen.

The prophet Jeremy was living in a like today similar situation, he was ready to give up (Book of Jeremiah chapter 20) , especially after God told him: "Then said the Lord unto me, though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth". (Jer. 15:1).

Do not give up my dear brother. May God refresh our love and faith.

Here we are, little older but still full of strength to serve.

Family without Jason, he is in Laredo ready to graduate this month.

Jason, thank God he made it!

The year 2009 is almost gone and 2010 is almost here. Time is going very fast. Unfortunately, very few Christians understand the urgency to do something that will last for all eternity.

The majority are focused on hoping that this world will become better. Be assured, it will not happen. Even the world leaders do not know what to do. But God knows. Yes, He knows what to do, and exactly

His will, will be done. That should give us peace of mind, not panic.

We are blessed, also this ending 2009 has been a year of service and hard work for God's glory, which we consider a great honor, privilege and responsibility.

Through your concerned prayers and support you have been part of this work and we thank you so much. Also, receive the gratitude of all of those who have been blessed through your generosity. We continue to count on you for 2010. And you, please, count on us to preach the Gospel. Our prayer is still: Here I am Lord, send me.

Have the most blessed Christmas, and a prosperous new year in every way. How? By keeping your eyes on HIM. He knows how to take care of all of us. Amen.

Thank you, Friends. Be blessed, Renato & Wendy.

P.S. We thank God so much to allow our son Jason to graduate in Business Administration at Texas A & M International University in Laredo, TX . Our prayer for all our children is that they will always put God first in all things, they know.
