

Christ Is The Redeemer

Mexico II Team

Summer, 2010

Volume #10 Issue #2

Dear One in Christ:

We know God is blessing you, and keeping you. He is faithful.

Greetings in Jesus, from the Mexican land.

It was not enough the exiting problems, now we have some more, the "War" with Arizona.

It is political election time in Mexico, so to me it sounds "normal", all this turmoils etc. Many news reports are fabricated. You know how it is, also some "demons became Christians" in times like this. But I must be honest, some time it is very, very intense.

Crossing the borders, you can feel the war zone atmosphere. Hate, mistrust, and fear are in the air. While traveling, if a vehicle stays behind you more than 1/4 of a mile, you start to worry, seriously.

Preaching the Gospel never has been easy. We are conscious of that. And that is what we are trying to do.

Believe it or not, the hardest part it is the problems already mentioned, but it is the indifference of a good part of the people of God, and the lack of workers. It is so hard to find somebody willing to go and do the work of God.

I believe with all my heart that many, will go to hell because of apathy of some Christians. This

During the day 100 degrees, at night 3 blankets are not enough, not exaggerating is the real problem, in my opinion.

Please forgive these words, but I need to put it out of my heart.

We are blessed. Thank God for all the work we have to do and that the evangelistic work is going well.

We are now in A. Obregon , ready to Move to Bachiniva. Both are little towns full of idolatry, witchcraft, and godlessness.

Yesterday I planned with the 2 local pastors and it looks very good. It is amazing that one of the pastors told me that God revealed to him, that he was going to see me just 2 days before I arrived. Amazing! Little things that are encouraging.

During the day it is sooo hot, in the night 3 blankets are not enough.

Along with the Gospel we are also giving out clothes, food, and love as God provides.

Thank you so much for your love and concern.

Love you all,

Renato and Wendy.

They are all over

Tarahumara Indian Family

Setting up the net

Worshiping the King

Lights are necessary