Dear Friends in Christ:

Greetings and blessings in Christ.

Thank God another year has passed and we are still alive and in His service!
It is more than enough to be grateful.

This year, 2012, has been characterized by several events. Some of these experiences have been wonderful blessings: seeing many people receive salvation and working with many precious servants of the living God. Some parts of this year have been more so-so: We wonder how we could be more effective for the glory of our Lord. And some parts of this year have been rough and difficult: I almost lost my wife and 2 daughters.

But in all these things, we are thankful to the Lord. We need not doubt God was, is, and will be always faithful. AMEN.

Many of you who are reading this have been able to help us in many different ways: prayer, finances, encouragement, and, as a result you are a blessing to us and an encouragement to the work God has placed before us. Thank you so much for being that spark of encouragement throughout the year.

We ask you to continue being that Barnabus for us and continue in prayer and encouragement for us through this next year.

But some of you reading this letter (this letter goes to a variety of people in our mailing list) may have never considered taking this first step of working with us in missions. I urge you to consider to start now by showing your concern through prayer, encouragement, and support for the lost and for God's work in areas you can't go.

Please remember that any believer in Jesus is welcome join with us in love and faith to reach as many as we can with the Gospel and with material helps. Or, just come and visit to see what we are doing. Even sometimes risking our lives to bring the Love of God to many.

We thank so much all of you who received us in your house and in your church. Lord willing, we will keep doing it also in 2013.

We would like also for you to know, that we are now, finally, a 501 (c) (3) non profit organization, and every offering sent to "Christ Is The Redeemer" can be used by you for taxes purpose.

Have a blessed Christmas and a prosper 2013 from the Gaglione family.

Our family and our co-workers in the field, wishes you the best Christmas and a prosper 2013. May God refresh your family and church, and renew your faith, strength and love.

In Christ,

Renato
