Friends in Christ:

May God continue to bless and keep all of you. I pray you are doing well.

We can only celebrate God's faithfulness. We see His faithfulness in grand and minute details but it is hard to put it in words.

Last night I went to meeting with my head and my heart very heavy, for several reasons. Two minutes before the preaching I did not know what to say. As soon I took the microphone in my hand, and began to speak, God intervened in such a sweet and powerful way that He helped me preach the best sermon of my life, based on 1 Corinthians 13. I felt so uplifted. A heavy burden fell from my heart and mind and those present were touched directly by God. Hallelujah! Yes, God is good.

In a few days, we will have baptisms right in this place full of criminals and suffering people. God will move. Amen.

Thank you all, so much for loving the Lord and His work. You, us, and Jesus form a great unbeatable team. Amen.

Renato and Wendy.

500 blankets donated from a Church in Kansas.

They have been our guest for a month.

Thank God! He is not tired of saving people.

Another lake to cast our nets.

37 years serving God. Thank you all!

A close look, the sandals. I offered them shoes or tennis shoes. They said: no thank you.
